The Hiding Place

A Novel

C. J. Tudor

Publicist: Sarah Breivogel | 212-572-2722 | sbreivogel@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

The thrilling second novel from the author of The Chalk Man, about a teacher with a hidden agenda who returns to settle scores at a school he once attended, only to uncover an even darker secret.

Joe never wanted to come back to Arnhill. After the way things ended with his old gang when his sister went missing, the last thing he wanted to do was return to his hometown. But Joe doesn't have a choice, because judging by what was done to that poor Morton kid, what happened all those years ago to Joe's sister is happening again.

Lying his way into a teaching job at his former high school is the easy part. Facing off with former friends who are none too happy to have him back in town is tougher. But the hardest part of all will be returning to that abandoned mine where it all went wrong. Because for Joe, the worst moment of his life wasn't the day his sister went missing—it was the day she came back.

AUTHOR BIO

C. J. TUDOR is the author of The Chalk Man and lives in Nottingham, England, with her partner and three-year-old daughter. Over the years she has worked as a copywriter, television presenter, voice-over artist, and dog walker. Tudor is now thrilled to be able to write full-time and doesn't miss chasing wet dogs through muddy fields all that much.

My Undercover Mission to Expose America's First Cyber Spy

Eric O'Neill

Publicist: Rachel Rokicki | 212-782-8455 | rrokicki@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

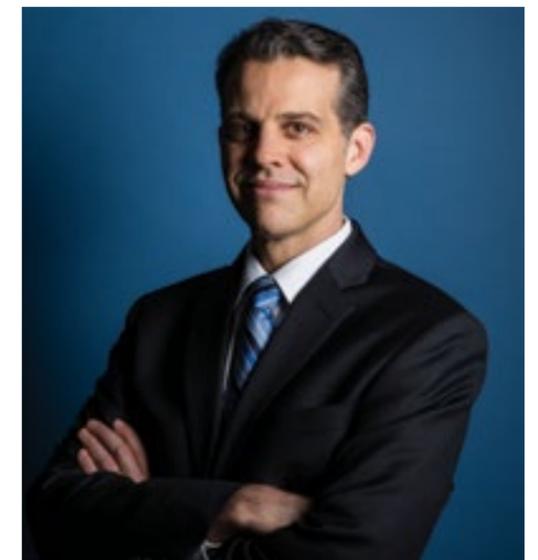

A cybersecurity expert and former FBI "ghost" tells the thrilling story of how he helped take down notorious FBI mole Robert Hanssen, the first Russian cyber spy.

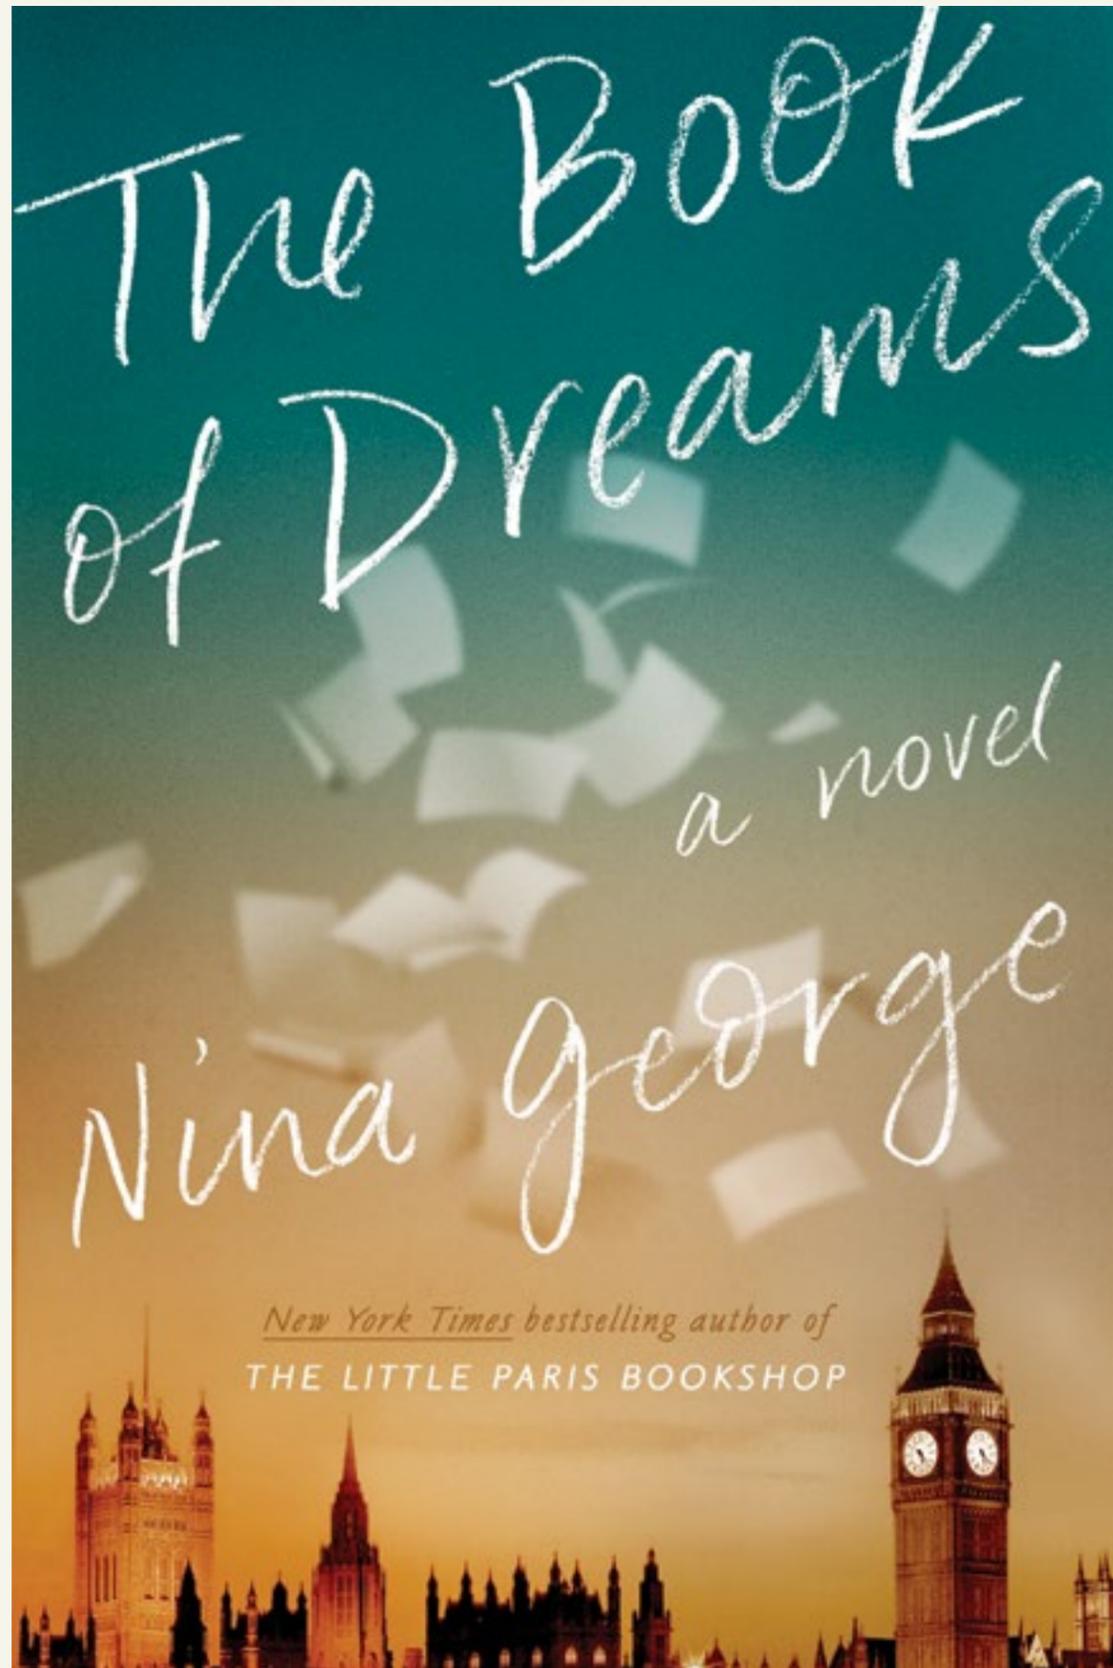

Eric O'Neill was only 26 when he was tapped for the case of a lifetime: a one-on-one undercover investigation of the FBI's top target, a man suspected of spying for the Russians for nearly two decades. With zero training in face-to-face investigation, O'Neill found himself in a windowless, high-security office in Washington, DC, tasked officially with helping the FBI secure its outdated computer system against hackers and spies—and unofficially with collecting evidence against his new boss, the exacting and rage-prone Robert Hanssen. In the months that follow, O'Neill's self-esteem and young marriage unravel under the pressure of life in Room 9930, and he questions the very purpose of his mission. But as Hanssen outmaneuvers an intelligence community struggling to keep up with the new reality of cybersecurity, he also teaches O'Neill the game of spycraft. O'Neill will just have to learn to outplay his teacher if he wants to win.

AUTHOR BIO

ERIC O'NEILL is a cybersecurity expert and former FBI counterterrorism and counterintelligence operative. He is the founder of the Georgetown Group, a premier investigative and security services firm, and serves as national security strategist for Carbon Black. O'Neill lectures internationally about cybersecurity and has appeared as a national security expert on CNN and Fox.

The Book of Dreams

A Novel

Nina George

Publicist: Gwyneth Stansfield | 212-366-2201 | gstansfield@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

The next novel from Nina George, author of the bestsellers The Little Paris Bookshop and The Little French Bistro, about the spaces between lives and realities, and loves both lost and coming home.

When Henri ends up in a coma after rescuing a young girl from the Thames, his ex-girlfriend Eddie discovers that she was listed as Henri's next of kin in his living will. While Henri lies in a hospital bed, he revisits the boyhood he spent with his grandfather, who fed him a steady diet of Breton fish and fairy tales.

Meanwhile, Sam, Henri's teenage son, has never known his father—Henri was in love with his mother, but too afraid of love to make a relationship work. Yet Sam has a deeper connection to his father than most children his age. Sam and Eddie, each previously unaware of the other, slowly begin to carve out an unexpected friendship, but when Sam is on his way to meet his father for the first time, tragedy strikes.

Full of captivating characters, and by placing the serious questions of life and death alongside an engrossing story, The Book of Dreams asks with grace and gravitas what we will find meaningful in our lives after we are gone.

AUTHOR BIO

NINA GEORGE is the author of the bestselling international phenomenon The Little Paris Bookshop, as well as numerous other books that have been published around the world. She also works as a journalist, and an advocate for women's rights. George lives with her husband in Berlin and Brittany, France.

Publicist: Penny Simon | 865-675-1705 | psimon@penguinrandomhouse.com

Publicist: Julia Bradshaw | 212-572-6049 | jubradshaw@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

The inside story of the battle to control Congress and the unsparing fight for advantage in the 2018 midterm elections.

With control of both the House and Senate up for grabs in 2018, and the direction of the nation resting on the outcome, never has a more savage, unrelenting fight been waged in the raptor cage that is the U.S. Congress. From the torrid struggle between the conservative Freedom Caucus and Speaker Paul Ryan for control of the house, to the sexual assault accusations against Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh that threw the Senate into turmoil, to the pitched battles across America in primaries, the road to the midterm election has been paved with chaos and intrigue. And that's before one considers that it's all refracted through the kaleidoscopic lens of President Trump, who can turn any situation on its head with just a single tweet. With inside access that ushers readers deep into the inner workings and hidden secrets of party leadership, Politico Playbook writers Anna Palmer and Jake Sherman trace the strategy and the impulsiveness, the deal-making and the backstabbing, in a blow-by-blow account of the power struggle roiling the halls of Congress. The Hill to Die On will be an unforgettable story of power and politics, where the stakes are nothing less than the future of America under Trump.

AUTHOR BIO

ANNA PALMER and JAKE SHERMAN are senior writers for Politico and the coauthors of Politico Playbook. Palmer was previously a coauthor of the Politico Influence and a writer for Roll Call and Legal Times. Sherman is a graduate of George Washington University and Columbia University, and has also worked at the Wall Street Journal.

The Paris Diversion

A Novel

Chris Pavone

Publicist: Sarah Breivogel | 212-572-2722 | sbreivogel@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

Kate Moore is back in an unputdownable thriller about a terror attack in Paris—and it may involve her own family.

After the events of The Expats, Kate Moore and her husband, Dexter, left Luxembourg and settled in Paris. It's not perfect, but they're working on their marriage and Kate has made friends with the other expat moms. The last thing she expects when she hears sirens while dropping Ben and Jake off at school is for her entire life to be turned upside down in just a few short hours.

With a suicide bomber outside the Louvre, a tech CEO and old nemesis of Dexter's missing, and no orders coming from Langley, Kate must partner with a French agent to figure out who is orchestrating the attack on Paris. Minute by minute, she comes closer to the truth—that the past she hoped she'd left behind might be closer than she thinks. And if she can't stop the shadowy figure behind it all, Paris may never be the same.

AUTHOR BIO

CHRIS PAVONE is the New York Times bestselling author of The Travelers, The Accident, and The Expats, winner of Edgar and Anthony Awards for best first novel. He was a book editor for nearly two decades and lives in New York City with his family.

The Lost Night

A Novel

Andrea Bartz

Publicist: Sarah Breivogel | 212-572-2722
sbreivogel@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

What really happened the night Edie died? Her best friend, Lindsay, is unprepared for the truth.

In 2009, in a loft complex in Brooklyn, Edie was the star of a group of graduates. Mercurial and beguiling, she had the social world in her thrall. And so when Edie committed suicide at the end of a long, drunken night, no one could believe it. Suffering from a mix of grief, shock, and resentment, each friend turned to their own corner, and for years, that's where they stayed.

A decade later, Lindsay has a thriving career in magazines and true adult friendships. But when a chance reunion leads Lindsay to discover an unsettling video from that night, she starts to wonder if Edie was actually murdered—and, worse, if she was involved. As she ruffles through those months in 2009—combing through case files, old technology, and her own fractured memory—Lindsay is forced to confront the demons of her history to bring the truth to light.

SUMMARY

A portrait of friendship severed by history, and a sweeping saga of wartime and legacy by an award-winning novelist.

East Village, 1989: Things had never been easy between Ava Fisher and her mother, Ilse. Too many questions hovered between them: Who was Ava’s father? Where had Ilse been during the war? Ilse always refused to answer, but now her ashes have arrived from Germany, along with a trove of unopened letters addressed to someone else Ilse never mentioned. As her mother’s letters unfurl a dark past, Ava spirals deep into the shocking history of a woman she never truly knew.

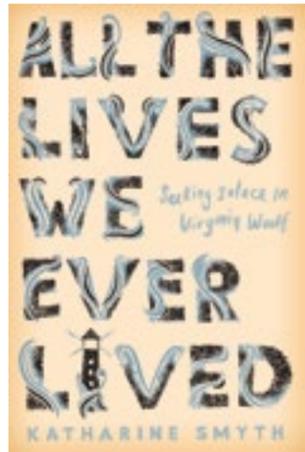

Berlin, 1933: Ilse and Renate have been inseparable since childhood. But as the Nazi party tightens its grip on the city, the young women find their friendship under siege—and Ilse’s increasing involvement in the Hitler Youth movement leaves them on opposing sides. Then the Nuremberg Laws force Renate to confront a long-buried family secret, and a catastrophic betrayal begins.

SUMMARY

A sweeping, ambitious tale of three families who are plagued by a curse over the course of generations—following them from India, Italy, and England until their tangled fates converge in Zambia.

Three families intersect over three generations, traveling from India, Italy, England, and ultimately Zambia: a country that becomes a character itself, from Livingstone’s “discovery” of Victoria Falls in 1855 to a brilliantly imagined Southern Africa of 2050. Split into three Books—the Grandmothers, the Mothers, and the Children—the story follows these families with beautifully human detail, all framed by an interstitial Greek chorus: the voice of a swarm of mosquitoes.

AUTHOR BIO

NAMWALI SERPELL was born in Zambia in 1980. Her writing has been featured in Tin House, n+1, and McSweeney’s, among other publications. In 2011, Serpell received a Rona Jaffe Foundation Writers’ Award, and her first published short story was selected for The Best American Short Stories 2009. PRAISE FOR THE OLD DRIFT

“In turn charming, heartbreaking, and breathtaking, The Old Drift is a staggeringly ambitious, genre-busting multigenerational saga with moxie for days. I wanted it to go on forever. A worthy heir to Gabriel García Márquez’s One Hundred Years of Solitude.”
—CARMEN MARIA MACHADO

“An astonishing novel, a riot for the senses, filled with the music and scents and sensations of Zambia. Namwali Serpell writes about people, land, and longing with such compassionate humor and precision, there’s an old wisdom in these pages. In short, make room on your shelf next to a few of your other favorites: Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Tsitsi Dangarembga, and Edwidge Danticat jump to mind. It’s brilliant. The Pisces

A Novel

Melissa Broder

Publicist: Crown Publicity | 212-572-2537
crownpublicity@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

An original, imaginative, and hilarious debut novel about love, anxiety, and sea creatures.

Lucy has been writing her dissertation for nine years when she and her boyfriend break up, and after she bottoms out in Phoenix, her sister in Los Angeles insists Lucy dog-sit for the summer. Annika's home is a glass cube on Venice Beach, but Lucy can find little relief from her anxiety—not in her love-addiction therapy group, not in Tinder, not even in the foxhound's easy affection.

Everything changes when Lucy meets an eerily attractive swimmer while sitting alone on the beach. But when Lucy learns the truth about his identity, their relationship—and Lucy's understanding of love—takes a very unexpected turn. Pairing hilarious frankness with pulse-racing eroticism, The Pisces is a story about falling in obsessive love with a merman: a figure of sirenic fantasy whose existence pushes Lucy to question everything she thought she knew.

SUMMARY

A wondrous and wise new novel from Sally Rooney, winner of the Sunday Times Young Writer of the Year Award 2017.

Connell Waldron is one of the most popular boys in his small-town high school: a star of the football team, an excellent student, and the class heartthrob. He has everything but money, while Marianne Sheridan—plain-looking, odd, and intensely private—is well-off but has no friends to speak of. There is, however, an undeniable connection between the two, one that develops into a secret relationship.

Everything changes when both Connell and Marianne are accepted to Trinity College. Suddenly Marianne is elegant and well-liked, while Connell hangs at the sidelines. And throughout their college years, Marianne and Connell circle each other, straying toward other people but magnetically drawn back to where they started. And as Marianne veers into self-destruction, Connell must decide how far he is willing to go for his oldest friend.

Fatima Farheen Mirza

Publicist: Rachel Rokicki | 212-782-8455
rrokicki@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

The first novel from SJP for Hogarth: a deeply moving and resonant story of love, identity, and belonging. A New York Times bestseller.

As an Indian wedding gathers a family back together, parents Rafiq and Layla must reckon with the choices their children have made. There is Hadia, their headstrong, eldest daughter; Huda, the middle child, determined to follow in her sister's footsteps; and their estranged son, Amar, who returns for the first time in years to take his place as brother of the bride. What betrayals caused this close-knit family to fracture? Can Amar find his way back to the people who know and love him best?

A Place for Us is a book for our times: an astonishingly tenderhearted novel of identity and belonging, and a resonant portrait of what it means to be an American family today. It announces Fatima Farheen Mirza as a major new literary talent.

The Road to Unfreedom

Russia, Europe, America

Timothy Snyder

Publicist: Dyana Messina | 212-572-2098
dmessina@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

From the author of On Tyranny comes a stunning chronicle of the rise of authoritarianism from Russia to America.

With the end of the Cold War, the victory of liberal democracy seemed final. Observers declared the end of history, confident in a peaceful, globalized future. This faith was misplaced. Authoritarianism returned to Russia, as Putin found fascist ideas that could be used to justify rule by the wealthy. In the 2010s, it has spread from east to west, aided by Russian warfare in Ukraine and cyberwar in Europe and the United States.

In this forceful and unsparing work of contemporary history, based on vast research as well as personal reporting, Snyder goes beyond the headlines to expose the true nature of the threat to democracy and law. By revealing the stark choices before us, Snyder restores our understanding of the basis of our way of life, offering a way forward in a time of terrible uncertainty.

AUTHOR BIO

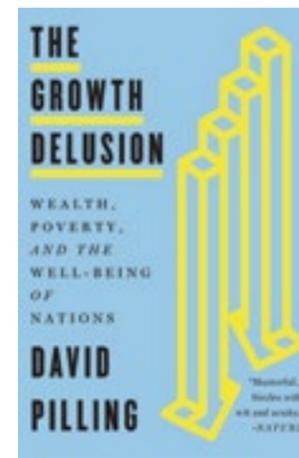

TIMOTHY SNYDER is the Levin Professor of History at Yale University and the author of the books On Tyranny, Black Earth, and Bloodlands. His work has received the literature award of the American Academy of Arts and Letters, the Hannah Arendt Prize, and the Leipzig Book Prize for European Understanding. Snyder lives in New Haven, Connecticut.

Star of the North

A Novel

D. B. John

Publicist: Sarah Breivogel | 212-572-2722
sbreivogel@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

A thriller about a woman rescuing her sister from North Korea, and the North Koreans with whom she forms an alliance.

In 1998, a Korean American teenager is kidnapped from a South Korean beach by North Korean operatives. Twelve years later, her twin sister, Jenna, is still searching for her and ends up on the radar of the CIA. When evidence that her sister may be alive in North Korea comes to light, Jenna will do anything to rescue her—including undertaking a daring mission into the heart of the regime. Her story is braided together with two other narrative threads. In one, a North Korean woman finds a forbidden international-aid balloon and uses it to launch a black-market business. In the other, a high-ranking North Korean official discovers that he may be descended from a traitor, a fact that could mean his death if it is revealed. As the novel progresses, these narrative strands converge in surprising ways, ultimately building to an explosive climax.

AUTHOR BIO

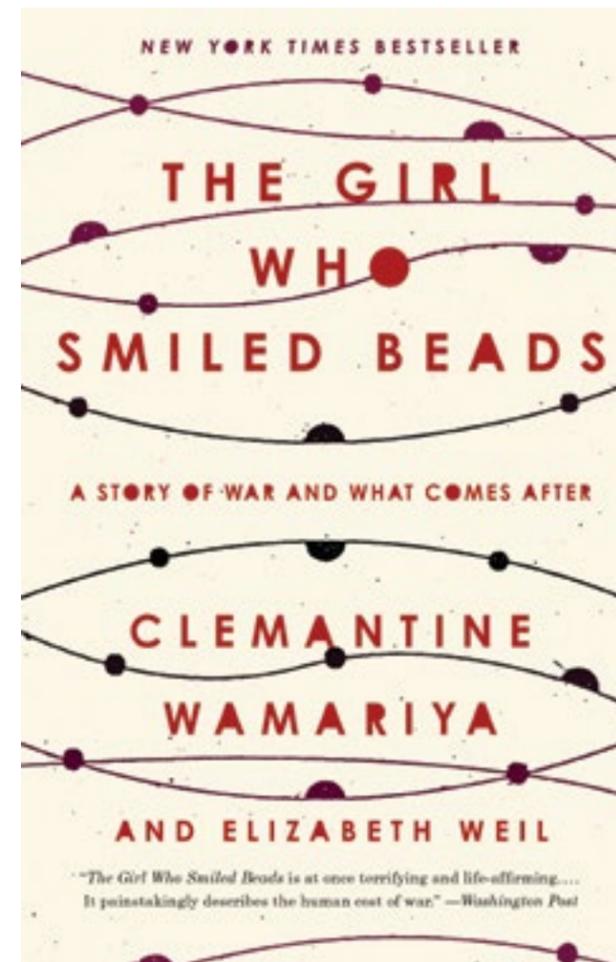

D. B. JOHN was born in Wales. He began training as a lawyer but switched to a career in publishing, editing popular children's books on history and science. In 2009 he moved to Berlin, Germany, to write his first novel, Flight from Berlin. A visit to North Korea in 2012 inspired Star of the North. He lives in Angel, London.

The Girl Who Smiled Beads

A Story of War and What Comes After

Clemantine Wamariya
and Elizabeth Weil

Publicist: Penny Simon | 865-675-1705
psimon@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

"The plot provided by the universe was filled with starvation, war, and rape. I would not—could not—live in that tale."

Clemantine Wamariya was six years old when her mother and father began to speak in whispers and neighbors began to disappear. In 1994, she and her sister, Claire, fled the Rwandan massacre and spent the next six years migrating through seven African countries searching for safety. They did not know whether their parents were dead or alive.

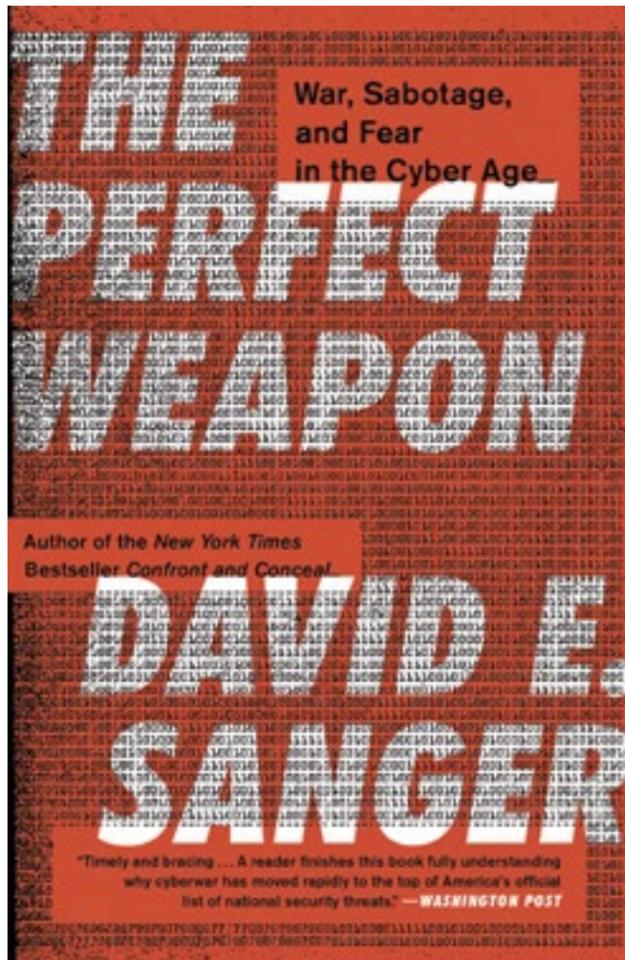

When Clemantine was 12, she and her sister were granted refugee status in the United States. Clemantine seemed to live the American dream: attending private school, taking up cheerleading, and, ultimately, graduating from Yale. Yet the years of being treated as less than human could not be erased.

In The Girl Who Smiled Beads, Wamariya provokes us to look beyond the label of "victim" and recognize the power of the imagination to transcend even the most profound injuries and aftershocks.

AUTHOR BIO

CLEMANTINE WAMARIYA is a storyteller and human rights advocate. Born in Kigali, Rwanda, and displaced by conflict, Wamariya migrated throughout seven African countries as a child. At age 12, she was granted refugee status in the United States and went on to receive a BA in comparative literature from Yale University. ELIZABETH WEIL is a writer at large for the New York Times Magazine, is a contributing editor to Outside magazine, and writes frequently for Vogue and other publications.

The Perfect Weapon

War, Sabotage, and Fear in the Cyber Age

David E. Sanger

Publisher: Crown Publicity | 212-572-2537
crownpublicity@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

How cyberwarfare is influencing elections, threatening national security, and changing diplomacy and war.

The Perfect Weapon is the startling inside story of how the rise of cyberweapons transformed geopolitics like nothing since the invention of the atomic bomb. Cheap to acquire, easy to deny, and usable for a variety of malicious purposes—from crippling infrastructure to sowing discord and doubt—cyber is now the weapon of choice for democracies, dictators, and terrorists. Moving from the White House Situation Room to the dens of Chinese-government hackers to the boardrooms of Silicon Valley, New York Times national security correspondent David Sanger reveals a world coming face-to-face with the perils of a technological revolution. The Perfect Weapon is the dramatic story of how great and small powers alike slipped into a new era of constant sabotage, misinformation, and fear, in which everyone is a target.

AUTHOR BIO

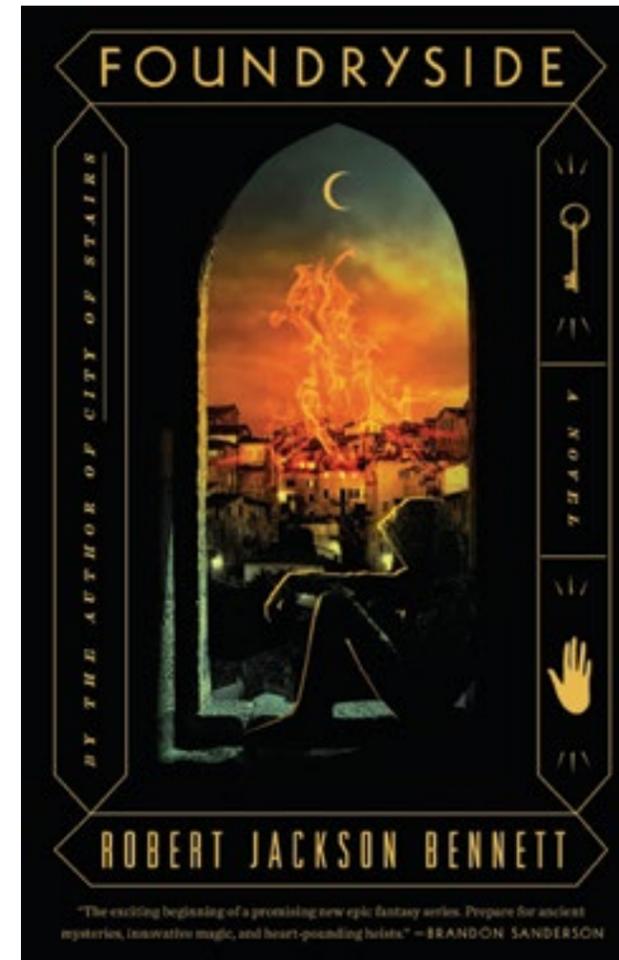

DAVID E. SANGER is national security correspondent for the New York Times and bestselling author of The Inheritance and Confront and Conceal. He has been a member of three teams that won the Pulitzer Prize, including in 2017 for international reporting. A regular contributor to CNN, he also teaches national security policy at Harvard’s Kennedy School of Government.

Robert Jackson Bennett

Publisher: Crown Publicity | 212-572-2537
crownpublicity@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

In a city that runs on industrialized magic, a secret war will be fought to overwrite reality itself.

Sancia Grado is a thief, and a damn good one. Her latest target is nothing her unique abilities can’t handle.

But unbeknownst to her, Sancia’s been sent to steal an artifact of unimaginable power that could revolutionize the magical technology known as “scrying.” The Merchant Houses that control this magic—the art of using coded commands to imbue everyday objects with sentience—have already used it to transform Tevanne into a vast, remorseless capitalist machine.

Now someone in those Houses wants Sancia dead, and the artifact for themselves.

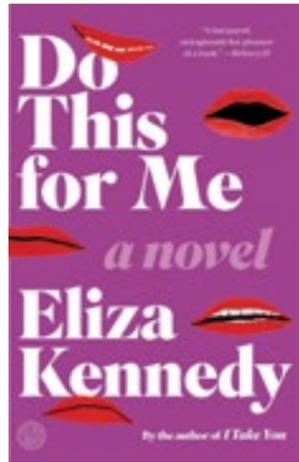

To have a chance at surviving—and at stopping the deadly transformation that’s under way—Sancia will have to marshal unlikely allies, learn to harness the artifact’s power for herself, and undergo her own transformation, one that will turn her into something she could never have imagined.

AUTHOR BIO

ROBERT JACKSON BENNETT is the author, most recently, of the Divine Cities trilogy, which was a 2018 Hugo Award finalist in the Best Series category. The first book in the series, City of Stairs, was also a finalist for the World Fantasy and Locus Awards, and the second, City of Blades, was a finalist for the World Fantasy, Locus, and British Fantasy Awards. His previous novels, which include American Elsewhere and Mr. Shivers, have received the Edgar Award, the Shirley Jackson Award, and the Phillip K. Dick Citation of Excellence. Too Much Is Not Enough

A Memoir of Fumbling Toward Adulthood

Andrew Rannells

Publicist: Ellen Folan | 212-782-8944 | efolan@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

From the star of The Book of Mormon and HBO's Girls, Andrew Rannells recounts heartfelt and hilarious real-life stories of a midwestern boy in New York City surviving bad auditions and bad relationships as he chases his Broadway dream.

In Too Much Is Not Enough, Rannells takes us on the journey of a 20-something who is hungry to experience everything: new friends, wild nights, great art, standing ovations. And at the heart of his hunger lies a powerful drive to reconcile the boy he was with the man he wants to be. As Rannells reveals how he merged these Andrews into the one who made his Broadway debut at 26, he also shares memorable stories from his journey to the Great White Way, from behind-the-curtain romances to the exhilaration of landing his first gig in Hairspray to the heartbreaking death of his father at the height of his ascent.

Along the way, Rannells learns that the most painful auditions are the ones you almost get and that sometimes the best nights are marked not by the hot clubs you danced at, but by the recap over diner food afterward. Filled with humor and honesty, this is an entertaining look at the love, loss, and transformation we experience in our 20s, and the powerful forces that determine who we become.

AUTHOR BIO

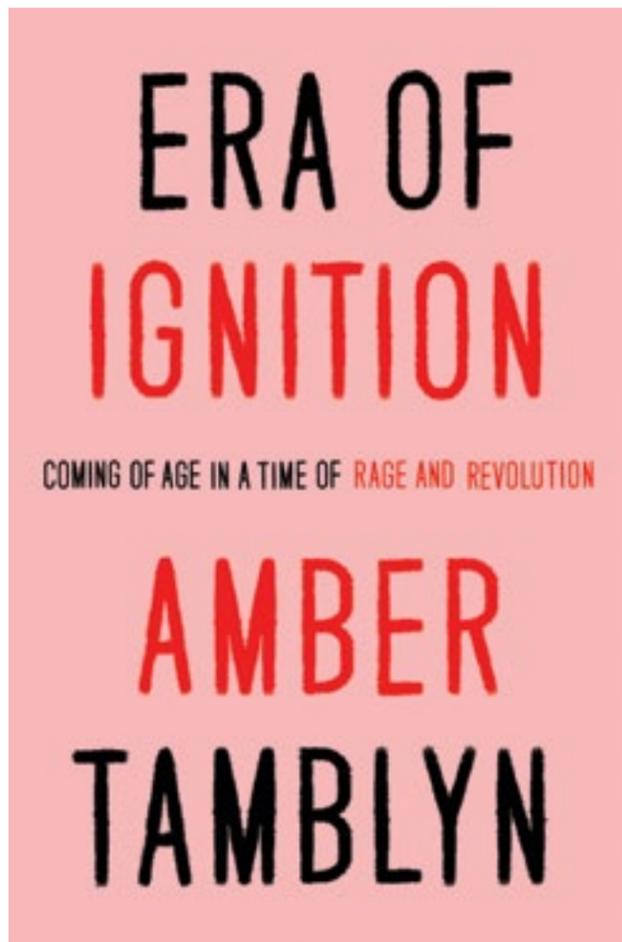

ANDREW RANNELLS is a performer best known for originating the role of Elder Price in The Book of Mormon and playing Elijah Krantz in HBO's Girls. A Tony and Drama Desk nominee and Grammy winner, he is currently starring in the Broadway revival of The Boys in the Band. On the small screen, Rannells will soon appear in the Amazon series The Romanoffs and Showtime's Black Monday.

"Andrew transcends entertainment memoir and tells a story of becoming—painful, pure, and true. He's a singer and an actor and a dancer, and guess what? It turns out he's a writer." —LENA DUNHAM, author of Not That Kind of Girl

"If [Rannells's memoir] is anything like the excerpt published in the Times' 'Modern Love' column, it will be a wonderfully honest, poignant and funny account of a gay Nebraskan's early years in New York." —NEW YORK POST

Era of Ignition

Coming of Age in a Time of Rage and Revolution

Amber Tamblyn

Publicist: Kathryn Santora | 212-572-2544
ksantora@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

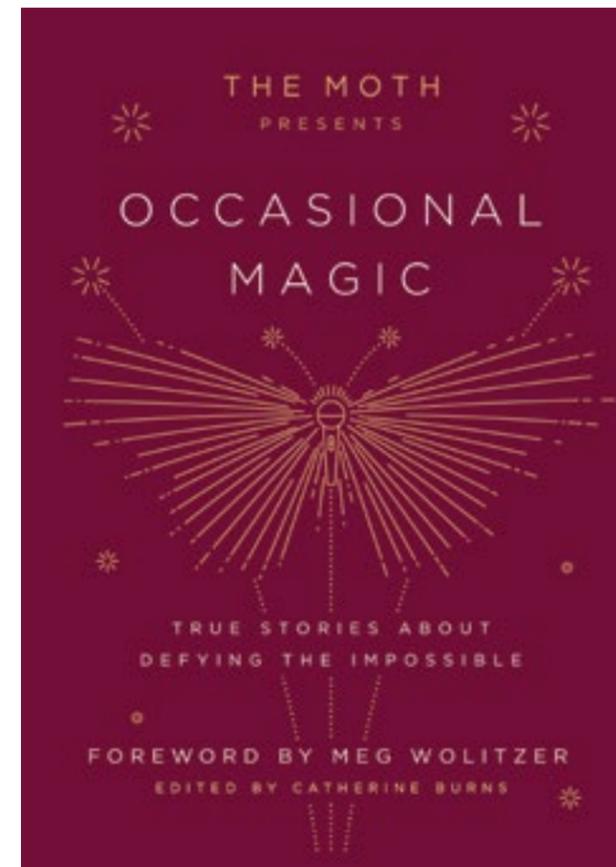

A passionate manifesto and intimate memoir from the front lines of modern feminism written by a Time's Up founder and actor Amber Tamblyn.

Amber Tamblyn is one of the most talked-about feminist voices today. Through her fierce op-eds in the New York Times, Glamour, and Hollywood Reporter and her work as a founder of the Time's Up organization, Tamblyn has tackled discrimination, sexual assault, reproductive rights, and pay parity, among others. Now Tamblyn presents her insightful and pointed take on the current state of feminism and expertly weaves together her own experiences and opinions with the larger movement. Using the same galvanizing voice that helped her recent op-eds go viral, Era of Ignition delivers an incisive call to arms that will capture the heart of the movement as it educates and inspires readers.

AUTHOR BIO

AMBER TAMBLYN is an author, actor, and director. She's been nominated for an Emmy, a Golden Globe, and an Independent Spirit Award for her work in television and film, including House, MD, and Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants. She is the author of three books of poetry, including the critically acclaimed bestseller Dark Sparkler, as well as a debut novel, Any Man. She reviews books of poetry by women for Bust, is a poet in residence at Amy Poehler's Smart Girls, and is a contributing writer for the New York Times.

The Moth Presents Occasional Magic

True Stories About Defying the Impossible

Edited by Catherine Burns

Publicist: Kathryn Santora | 212-572-2544
ksantora@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

From storytelling phenomenon The Moth, a new collection of unforgettable true stories about facing the impossible.

Carefully selected by the creative minds at The Moth, and adapted to the page to preserve the raw energy of live storytelling, Occasional Magic features 45 voices familiar and new. Alongside Adam Gopnik, Krista Tippett, Andrew Solomon, Rosanne Cash, and Ophira Eisenberg, storytellers from around the world share times when, in the face of challenging situations, they found something that they never knew they possessed—whether a power, strength, or passion—and a little magic happened. With strength and humor, they encourage us all to be more open, vulnerable, and alive.

AUTHOR BIO

THE MOTH is an acclaimed not-for-profit organization dedicated to the art of storytelling. It celebrates both the raconteur, who breathes fire into true tales of ordinary life, and the storytelling novice, who has lived through something extraordinary and yearns to share it. Since its launch in 1997, The Moth has presented thousands of stories, told live and without notes, to crowds worldwide. The Moth received the MacArthur Award for Creative and Effective Institutions in January 2012. CATHERINE BURNS is artistic director of The Moth and the editor of The Moth Presents All These Wonders.

Outer Order, Inner Calm

Declutter and Organize to Make More Room for Happiness

Gretchen Rubin

Publicist: Sarah Breivogel | 212-572-2722 | sbreivogel@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

In her new book, bestselling author Gretchen Rubin offers more than 100 concrete ideas to help us create the order and organization that can make our lives happier, more productive, and more creative.

In the context of a happy life, a messy desk or crowded coat closet is a trivial problem—yet Gretchen Rubin has found that getting control of the stuff of life makes us feel more in control of our lives generally. By getting rid of things we don't use, don't need, or don't love, as well as things that don't work, don't fit, or don't suit, we free our mind (and our shelves) for what we truly value.

In this trim book filled with insights, strategies, and sometimes surprising tips, Rubin tackles the key challenges of creating outer order, by explaining how to "Make Choices," "Create Order," "Know Yourself—and Others," "Cultivate Helpful Habits," and, of course, "Add Beauty."

When we get our possessions under control, we feel both calmer and more energetic. With a sense of humor and also a clear sense of what's realistic for most people, Rubin suggests dozens of manageable steps for creating a more serene, orderly environment—one that helps us create the lives we yearn for.

AUTHOR BIO

GRETCHEN RUBIN is one of the most thought-provoking and influential writers on the linked subjects of habits, happiness, and human nature. She's the author of many books, including the blockbuster New York Times bestsellers The Four Tendencies, Better Than Before, and The Happiness Project. The Miracle Equation

Hal Elrod

Publicist: Connie Capone | 212-782-9486 | ccapone@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

Hal Elrod, motivational speaker and author of the bestselling book The Miracle Morning, shares his secret “miracle equation,” the secret to unlocking happiness, success, and your full potential.

Twenty years ago, as a young salesman, Hal Elrod created the Miracle Equation to break sales records: Unwavering Faith + Extraordinary Effort = Results. Unexpectedly, he recently found himself using that same equation after a cancer diagnosis with a 30 percent survival rate. He focused on the positive and decided that he would be one of the 30 percent. The Miracle Equation allowed him to live free of fear and create his own miracle.

In The Miracle Equation, Hal shows how everyone can use this same equation to succeed against any obstacle they might be facing. He teaches readers to redefine the real purpose of their goals in order to change their mind-set and ultimately replace fear with faith and make their miracle happen. With The Miracle Equation's 30-day challenge, you'll create your step-by-step plan to reach your goal. With unwavering faith and extraordinary effort, anyone can become the person they need to be in order to succeed.

AUTHOR BIO

HAL ELROD is a hall of fame business achiever, ultramarathon runner, multiple #1 bestselling author, hip-hop recording artist, husband, father, and international keynote motivational speaker. He is the author of The Miracle Morning and its 10 companion titles, Taking Life Head On, and the forthcoming Beyond the Bestseller.

Lose Weight and Transform Your Health with the Power of Essential Oils and Bioactive Foods

Eric Zielinski, DC, and Sabrina Ann Zielinski

Publicist: Connie Capone | 212-782-9486 | ccapone@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

Eric Zielinski, bestselling author of The Healing Power of Essential Oils, and Sabrina Ann Zielinski introduce a diet program that harnesses essential oils and bioactive foods for rapid weight loss.

The immediate success of The Healing Power of Essential Oils showed how people are hungry to heal their bodies with essential oils. As this market continues to grow, word is getting out that you can consume these powerful plant compounds and tap into their power to help you lose weight. The Essential Diet teaches readers how bioactive plant compounds—those found in essential oils and in foods like matcha tea, chia seeds, almonds, and avocados—can aid in weight loss, boost energy levels, and trigger the body's natural immune defenses to fight chronic diseases.

Step 1 is the Essential Fast Track, a 30-day program that features essential oil-infused eating and daily essential oil practices. Step 2 is the Essential Lifestyle phase, a maintenance program that allows for a wider array of bioactive foods. The book also includes 75 recipes like Mama Z's Rose Quinoa Porridge and No-Bake Cardamom Chocolate Oatmeal Cookies.

The Fate of Food

What We'll Eat in a Bigger, Hotter, Smarter World

Amanda Little

Publicist: Penny Simon | 865-675-1705
psimon@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

The defining story of the sustainable food revolution and an examination of the race to secure the global food supply.

From dairies in India where microchips embedded in cow flanks transmit real-time data about the animals' health and milk quality to the fields of Nigerian farmers who are growing the world's first drought-tolerant rice, The Fate of Food tells the story of human innovation through food, examining both old and new approaches to food production and their costs and benefits in an era of climate change. Amanda Little seeks to answer questions like Can GMOs actually be good for the environment? What are the most sustainable sources of protein, long-term? Her investigation takes her to the most extreme frontiers of modern food production and tells the stories of the most creative and controversial innovators. Along the way, readers will gain a deeper understanding of climate change and the hope that a solution is on the horizon.

AUTHOR BIO

AMANDA LITTLE teaches investigative journalism and creative nonfiction at Vanderbilt University, where she is writer in residence in the English Department. She went to Brown University and has been working in online media since 1996, when she was the first employee of the first online magazine, Feed. He Said, She Said

Lessons, Stories, and Mistakes from My Transgender Journey

Gigi Gorgeous

Publicist: Kathryn Santora | 212-572-2544
ksantora@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

In this hilarious and honest memoir, transgender icon Gigi Gorgeous tells her story of becoming herself.

Today, Gigi Gorgeous is beloved for her over-the-top style, outrageous sense of humor, and glam Hollywood lifestyle. Ten years ago, she was a gawky Canadian teen named Gregory. Now she brings us on her journey from Gregory Lazzarato to Gigi, going deeper than ever before into her struggles and triumphs.

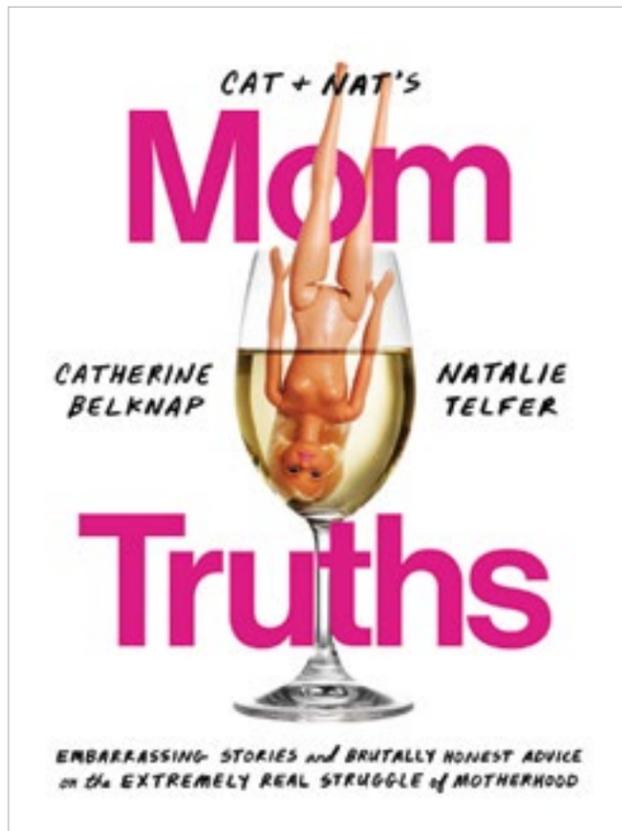

Illustrated with gorgeous photography and heirloom snapshots, He Said, She Said takes us back to Lazzarato's early years as an Olympic-bound diver and high school mean girl, losing her mom at a tragically young age, and her journey of opening up about her sexuality and gender identity. She walks us through her transition and is incredibly honest about dating and heartbreak in stories of falling in love with both men and women.

Always funny and uplifting, Lazzarato offers inspiration and advice about staying true to yourself no matter what.

AUTHOR BIO

GIGI GORGEOUS, born Gregory Allan Lazzarato and legally named Giselle Loren Lazzarato, is a model, actress, and Internet personality with nearly 8 million followers. She came out as a transgender woman in 2013 and maintained her public image and YouTube channel during and after her transition. Lazzarato has also appeared on a number of television shows including Access Hollywood, Good Work, and Project Runway: All Stars. She was awarded the LogoTV Trailblazing Social Creator Award in 2014 for her advocacy on behalf of LGBT youth.

Cat and Nat's Mom Truths

Embarrassing Stories and Brutally Honest Advice on the Extremely Real Struggle of Motherhood

Catherine Belknap and Natalie Telfer

Publicist: Tammy Blake | 212-572-2542
tblake@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

Hilarious moms and best friends Cat and Nat share their stories and insights on the realities of motherhood.

With seven kids between them and more than one million fans on social media, Cat and Nat have connected with their audience by sharing their completely real take on the stress, guilt, and joy of being a mom.

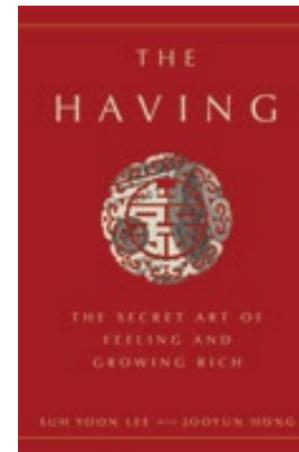

Mixing never-before-told stories with outrageous humor and genuine comfort, Cat and Nat's Mom Truths walks you through the stages of being a mom, from pregnancy onward. It's peppered with ridiculously honest advice and hilarious insights, like what you think you'll need at the hospital when you have your first baby (lip gloss) versus what you actually need (hemorrhoid pillow). As crusaders against the perfection myth, Cat and Nat are like your best friends who assure you that you're already doing great. Capturing the feeling of their close, no-holds-barred friendship, this is the essential companion for crazed moms everywhere.

AUTHOR BIO

CATHERINE BELKNAP and NATALIE TELFER have been best friends since they were teens, and now their video series of #MOMTRUTHS about everything from sleep to sex has turned them into viral sensations. Their videos drop mom truths like why going clubbing is the best preparation for having kids (because the night always ends with someone random in your bed and a girl crying in the corner). Belknap and Telfer live in Toronto.

The Essential Oils Hormone Solution

Reclaim Your Energy and Focus and Lose Weight Naturally

Dr. Mariza Snyder

Publicist: Connie Capone | 212-782-9486
ccapone@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

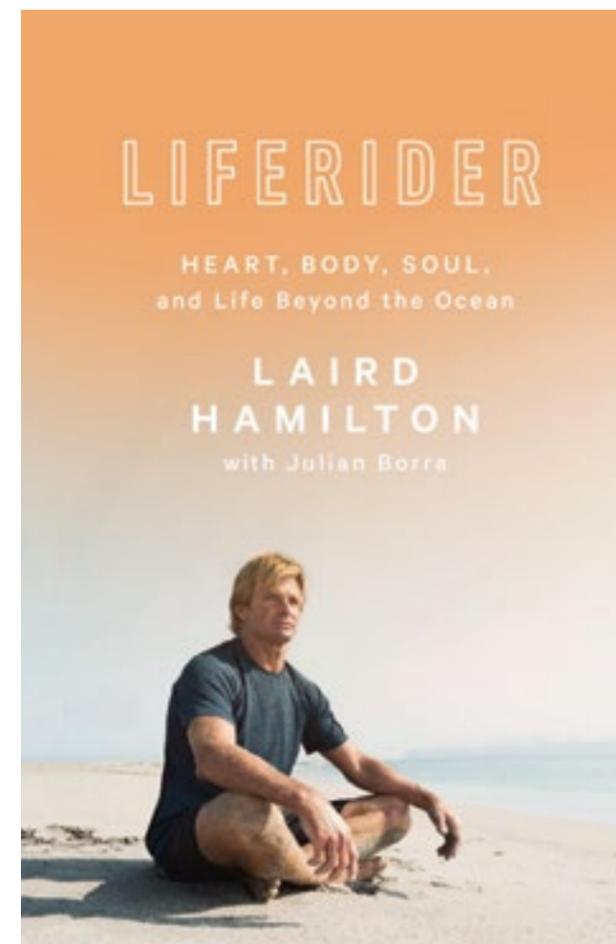

The Essential Oils Hormone Solution offers women a natural fix for all their hormone-related health issues.

All around the world, women are gaining weight and they don't know why. Their energy is zapped. They have trouble falling asleep, and then have to drag themselves out of bed in the morning. They have cravings at all hours of the day and night. They might find their keys in the freezer and their glasses on the spice rack—and they often feel like they're just going crazy.

These women aren't crazy—they're likely experiencing hormonal imbalance, and Dr. Mariza Snyder is here to help. These amazing life-affirming essential oils allow women to balance their hormones; fix cravings; get deep, restful sleep; improve moods and lessen irritability; banish the worst symptoms of PMS; empower themselves with daily rituals; increase their energy and vitality; improve focus and concentration; boost libido; and more.

AUTHOR BIO

DR. MARIZA SNYDER is the author of six previous books, including the bestselling The DASH Diet Cookbook. For the past nine years, she has lectured at wellness centers, hospitals, conferences, and corporations on hormone health and essential oils, nutrition, and detoxification. Liferider

Heart, Body, Soul, and Life Beyond the Ocean

Laird Hamilton

Publicist: Tammy Blake | 212-572-2542
tblake@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

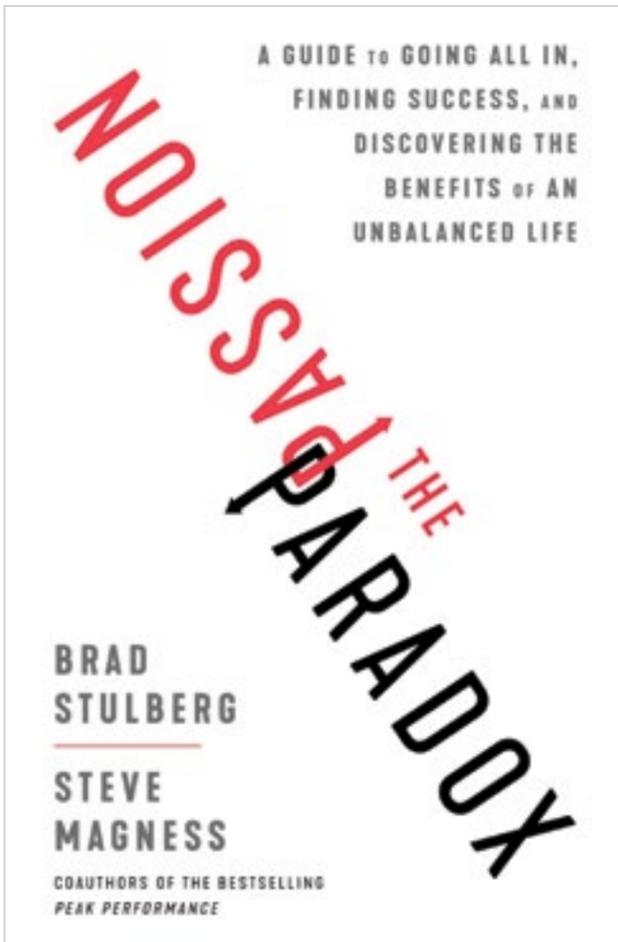

Surfing legend Laird Hamilton condenses his worldview into three simple blocks of thinking, feeling, and doing.

In this follow-up to the New York Times bestseller Force of Nature, big-wave surfer, fitness icon, and entrepreneur Laird Hamilton reveals the secrets behind his success and breaks down the principles that have motivated his extraordinary life. Liferider is a prescriptive narrative that condenses Hamilton's unique worldview into its three distinct elements: heart, body, and soul.

Heart, the first of three sections in the book, explores the intrinsic motivation that drives our lives and everyday actions. Body explores everything that affects our physical manifestations: our genetics, environments, foods, exercise, and even our breath. Soul seeks to help us make sense of the cat's cradle of beliefs we all carry with us, what we expect of them, and what they really mean to us.

AUTHOR BIO

LAIRD HAMILTON is an American athlete, surfer, author, inventor, stunt man, model, producer, TV host, fitness and nutrition expert, husband, father, and adrenaline junkie. He is one of today's best-known big-wave surfers. In addition to riding many of the biggest waves on the planet, Hamilton is the world-renowned innovator and guiding genius of crossover board sports, including tow-in surfing, stand-up paddleboarding, and hydrofoil boarding. He lives in Malibu, California.

The Passion Paradox

A Guide to Going All In, Finding Success, and Discovering the Benefits of an Unbalanced Life

Brad Stulberg and Steve Magness

Publicist: Connie Capone | 212-782-9486
ccapone@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

A fascinating dive into the science of passion, how it can hurt us, and the right way to pursue it.

A life of passion is a good life, or so we are told. But it's not that simple. The same drive that fuels breakthroughs—whether they're athletic, scientific, entrepreneurial, or artistic—can be every bit as destructive as they are productive.

Bestselling coauthors of Peak Performance, Brad Stulberg and Steve Magness, once again team up, showing readers how they can find their passion, sustainably harness its power, and avoid its dangers. They ultimately argue that passion and balance are incompatible, and that to find your passion, you must lose balance. And they offer a plan for finding the right kind of passion. Swift, compact, and powerful, this thought-provoking book combines captivating stories of extraordinarily passionate people with the latest science on the biological and psychological factors that give rise to passion.

AUTHOR BIO

BRAD STULBERG writes for Outside magazine, New York magazine, Forbes, NPR, the Los Angeles Times, Runner's World, and HuffPost. Previously he worked as a consultant for McKinsey. Stulberg lives in Northern California with his wife, Caitlin. STEVE MAGNESS is a coach to some of the top distance runners in the world. He has been a featured expert in Runner's World, the New York Times, The New Yorker, BBC, the Wall Street Journal, and ESPN The Magazine. Magness lives in Houston, Texas.

Great Leaders Have No Rules

Contrarian Leadership Principles to Transform Your Team and Business

Kevin Kruse

Publicist: Kathryn Santora | 212-572-2544
ksantora@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

New York Times* bestselling author Kevin Kruse debunks popular wisdom with 10 rules for better, faster, easier success.

Kruse's experiences as an entrepreneur showed him that the leadership practices that actually work are the opposite of what's commonly taught. Inspired by Kruse's viral article "Why Successful Leaders Don't Have an Open Door Policy," this contrarian approach to leadership reveals why you should throw out the rulebook and instead play favorites, tell employees everything (even salaries), stay out of meetings, and more.

Weaving engaging real-world stories with quantitative research, Kruse makes the case for his principles, each chapter explaining a piece of wisdom that bucks the trend and helps leaders be more effective. He also shares applications beyond the office—at home, in sales, in sports, and more. Ultimately his advice empowers you to focus on what matters—the key to success for you, your employees, and your company.

AUTHOR BIO

KEVIN KRUSE is a New York Times bestselling author and serial entrepreneur who started or cofounded several multimillion-dollar businesses, including ACI, Kenexa, Axiom, The Kruse Group, and LEADx. I Was Their American Dream

A Graphic Memoir

Malaka Gharib

Publicist: Jana Branson | 212-572-2210 | jbranson@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

For fans of Mari Andrew and Marjane Satrapi, this graphic memoir by first-generation American Malaka Gharib is not only a tender coming-of-age story, but also a love letter to American immigrant freedom.

An illustrated memoir packed with personality, I Was Their American Dream provides a peek into the immigrant family experience in America over the past three decades. Beginning in Southern California in the 1980s, writer and illustrator Malaka Gharib tells the story of her youth while questioning what it means to be an American today.

Gharib's childhood was spent in the nebulous space between her parents' cultural roots and her desire to be like the all-American kids she saw on Felicity and MTV's Total Request Live. Just like every other teenager in America, she struggled with her image, her mom's cooking, her religion, and her taste in music. Would she ever live up to the expectations her parents had for her when they moved to the United States? Would she ever live the American dream? This triumphant story follows a young woman as she learns to celebrate her cultural identity.

This is not just an immigrant family's story—this is America's story.

AUTHOR BIO

MALAKA GHARIB is the deputy editor and social media manager for NPR's global health and global development blog, Goats and Soda. Gharib also manages a food and pop-culture zine called The Runcible Spoon and cofounded the Washington, DC, area art-book fair.

From the trusted online wellness community comes 100 recipes, along with advice and perspective from experts and influencers, that address wellness concerns from skin to sex life.

Eating for Wellness is the new go-to authority for staying healthy in every way. These 100 recipes (half of which are new and exclusive) are contributed by voices from a variety of fields, including Gabby Bernstein (spirituality), Bobbi Brown (beauty), Joey Gonzalez (fitness), Candice Kumai (nutrition), and more. These are the recipes that wellness idols rely on every day in their busy lives—and now readers can do the same. Health labels will be denoted, such as vegan, paleo, gluten-free, and keto, and in addition, each recipe will have specific wellness factors specified: better skin, better sleep, better sex, better mood, better focus, better digestion, better energy. The recipes are organized by meal, and the book contains a wellness index for easy reference, so readers can act on specific goals.

Franklin Steak

Aaron Franklin and Jordan Mackay

Publicist: Kristin Casemore | 510-285-2944 | kristin.casemore@tenspeed.com

SUMMARY

The be-all, end-all guide to cooking the perfect steak—from buying top-notch beef, seasoning, and building the ideal cooking vessel—from the team behind the acclaimed and bestselling Franklin Barbecue.

Aaron Franklin may be the reigning king of brisket, but in his off-time, what he really loves to cook and eat at home is steak. So in this follow-up to his bestselling book Franklin Barbecue, the pitmaster extraordinaire teaches readers how to cook his favorite food to absolute perfection. With their trademark rigor and expertise, Franklin and coauthor Jordan Mackay go deeper into the art and science of cooking steak than anyone has gone before. They travel the world—beyond Franklin’s native Texas to Spain, Scotland, California, and Japan—to uncover global steak preparations and traditions. They demystify cattle breeds, explore the technique of dry-aging, and even teach readers how to build custom, backyard grill setups inspired by the best steak chefs in the world. For any meat lover, backyard grill master, or fan of Franklin’s fun yet authoritative approach, this book is a must-have.

AUTHOR BIO

AARON FRANKLIN is one of the biggest, most recognized names in barbecue. His restaurant has won every major barbecue award and has been in magazines ranging from GQ to Bon Appétit. JORDAN MACKAY is a James Beard Award-winning writer on wine, spirits, and food. My Tiny Atlas

Our World Through Your Eyes

Emily Nathan

Publicist: Natalie Mulford | 510-285-2959
natalie.mulford@tenspeed.com

SUMMARY

A wanderlust-inspiring collection of photos compiled by the premier online curator of travel content.

As much an armchair-travel companion as a guide to planning your next trip, My Tiny Atlas contains 300 lush, surprising, and stunning photos, along with stories about far-flung locales and tips for experiencing a location like a local. From Tiny Atlas Quarterly—one of the most trusted sources for authentic and inspiring travel photography—this book takes you to all corners of the world, from Paris, San Francisco, and Buenos Aires to the Arctic Circle, Tanzania, and Mongolia. My Tiny Atlas visually explores new destinations with an intimate, insider's view—not of the usual attractions, but of the real people, mouthwatering food, verdant flora, bustling streets, wild animals, epic views, lazy rivers, architectural gems, and other details that make you feel like you're truly in another place, whether you ever leave home or not.

AUTHOR BIO

Professional photographer EMILY NATHAN founded Tiny Atlas Quarterly in Oakland, California, in 2012 as a way to offer something she noticed was missing from even the best travel and lifestyle content publications. It became the place to merge incredible and more intimate imagery from some of the best lifestyle photographers in the world with the honest voices, personal narratives, and helpful travel tips people bring home from their trips. Tiny Atlas Quarterly has become one of the most respected producers of travel content, lauded for its on-the-ground, real-life perspective.

We Are Everywhere

A Visual Guide to the History of Queer Liberation, So Far

Leighton Brown and Matthew Riemer

Publicist: David Hawk | 510-285-2951
david.hawk@tenspeed.com

SUMMARY

A rich photographic history of the queer liberation movement from the massively popular @lgbt_history Instagram account.

Through the lens of pride, protest, and progress, We Are Everywhere is a visual record and celebration of LGBTQ+ identity, life, history, and liberation, timed to coincide with the 50th anniversary of the 1969 Stonewall Riots. Tracing queer history from the early 20th century before Stonewall to today, this beautifully packaged photo book contains thousands of photos and pieces of ephemera with detailed corresponding narrative that tells the story of the fight for LGBTQ+ civil rights. The vintage and contemporary images cover every aspect of queer life and liberation, including pride marches and protests, the AIDS crisis, queer family life, personal snapshots from notable and everyday people, drag queens, celebrations, reactions to important legal decisions, marriage equality, and more.

AUTHOR BIO

LEIGHTON BROWN and MATTHEW RIEMER are an engaged couple based in Washington, DC, who are both attorneys and amateur LGBT historians. Together they run the hugely popular @lgbt_history Instagram account.

Whole Hog BBQ

The Gospel of Carolina Barbecue with Recipes from Skylight Inn and Sam Jones BBQ

Sam Jones and Daniel Vaughn

Publicist: Kristin Casemore | 510-285-2944
kristin.casemore@tenspeed.com

SUMMARY

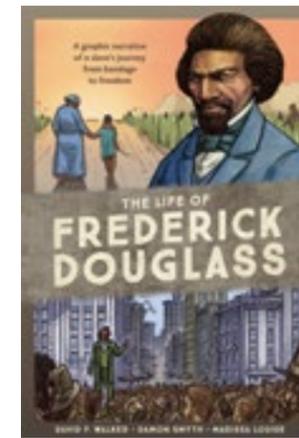

The definitive guide to Carolina-style barbecue featuring more than 20 family recipes for barbecue, sides, and desserts.

In Whole Hog BBQ, Sam Jones and renowned barbecue editor Daniel Vaughn recount the history of barbecue in Eastern North Carolina and share the origin story of Skylight Inn—the legendary barbecue spot that Jones’s grandfather opened in 1947. Along the way, we come to understand the Jones family’s legacy and gain access to coveted recipes from Skylight Inn and Sam Jones BBQ. We get the step-by-step method for Skylight Inn’s classic whole hog (serves 180!) and the scaled-down 60-pound version from Sam Jones BBQ, as well as a recipe for the best pork shoulder you’ve ever had plus other favorites from both restaurants, all adapted for the home kitchen and grill: cornbread, sweet slaw, spareribs, smoked turkey, fried catfish, the signature burger, and more.

AUTHOR BIO

SAM JONES is the owner of Sam Jones BBQ and Skylight Inn, which was opened by his grandfather in 1947 and where he started honing his chops as a boy. He returned to the family business after rediscovering barbecue through writing a 15-page essay on the topic for a college assignment. DANIEL VAUGHN is the country’s first barbecue editor. He holds this post at Texas Monthly magazine and has also contributed to Bon Appétit, Lucky Peach, First We Feast, Los Angeles magazine, and Time. He is the author of Prophets of Smoked Meat.

Gabriela Cámara and Malena Waltrous

Publicist: David Hawk | 510-285-2951 | david.hawk@tenspeed.com

SUMMARY

Internationally celebrated Mexican chef and culinary trendsetter Gabriela Cámara shares 150 recipes for her vibrant, simple, and sophisticated contemporary Mexican cooking.

Inspired by the flavors, ingredients, and flair of Mexico City, Gabriela Cámara's style of fresh-first, vegetable-forward, legume-loving, and seafood-centric Mexican cooking is a siren call to all home cooks who crave authentic, on-trend recipes they can make with confidence and regularity. With recipes for essentials, breakfasts, starters, mains, sweets, and drinks, Mexican food fans will find everything they want to make—from chilaquiles verdes to chiles rellenos and flan de cajeta—plus many sure-to-be new favorites, such as her signature tuna tostadas. More than 150 arresting images capture the rich culture that informs Cámara's food, and essays detail the approach that distinguishes her cooking, from why non-GMO corn matters to how everything can be a taco. With celebrated restaurants in Mexico City and San Francisco, Cámara is at the vanguard of Mexican cooking and her straightforward, elevated recipes are exactly what home cooks want.

Brave, Not Perfect

Fear Less, Fail More, and Live Bolder

Reshma Saujani

Publicist: Megan Perritt | 212-572-2543 | mperritt@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

New York Times bestselling author and Girls Who Code founder and CEO inspires us to discover the power of female bravery.

As women, we are taught from an early age to play it safe. Parents and teachers reward us for being quiet and polite, urge us to be careful so we don't get hurt, and steer us to activities at which we can shine. Meanwhile, boys are expected to speak up, get dirty, play rough, climb to the top of the monkey bars. In short, boys are raised to be brave, while girls are taught to be perfect.

As a result, we grow up to be women who are afraid to fail. So scared to take risks, take a stand, or ask for what we want, even to make mistakes, we tamp down our dreams and narrow our world, along with our opportunities for happiness.

Through inspiring stories, powerful insights, and simple practices to make bravery a lifelong habit, Reshma Saujani shows us how to end our love affair with perfection and become the authors of our biggest, boldest, and most joyful life.

AUTHOR BIO

RESHMA SAUJANI is the founder and CEO of Girls Who Code, a national nonprofit working to close the gender gap in technology that has reached 90,000 girls in 50 states. She has been named one of Fortune's 40 Under 40, one Forbes's Most Powerful Women Changing the World, and an AOL/PBS Next Maker. Late Bloomers

The Power of Patience in a World Obsessed with Early Achievement

Rich Karlgaard

Publicist: Megan Perritt | 212-572-2543
mperritt@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

A groundbreaking exploration of what it means to be a late bloomer in a culture obsessed with SAT scores and early success, and how finding one's way later in life can be an advantage to long-term achievement and happiness.

We live in a society where kids and parents are obsessed with early achievement, from getting perfect scores on SATs to getting into Ivy League colleges to landing an amazing job at Google or Facebook.

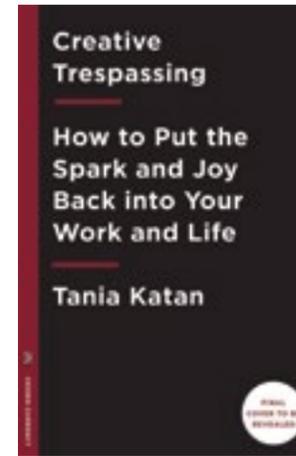

But most of us do not explode out of the gates in life. The executive function of our brains doesn't mature until age 25—and later, for some.

Based on several years of research, personal experience, and interviews with neuroscientists, psychologists, and countless people at different stages of their careers, Karlgaard reveals how and when we achieve full potential—and why an algorithmic acuity in math is such an anomaly in terms of career success.

RICH KARLGAARD is the publisher of Forbes magazine and is based in Silicon Valley. He is a renown lecturer, pilot, and the author of four acclaimed previous books.

You Can't Go Wrong Doing Right

How a Child of Poverty Rose to the White House and Helped Change the World

Robert J. Brown

Publicist: Penny Simon | 865-675-1705 | psimon@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

In this unforgettable account of a quietly remarkable life, Robert Brown takes readers into pivotal moments from the 20th century, sharing the lessons that helped him shape the America we know today.

Called "a world-class power broker" by the Washington Post, Robert Brown has been a sought-after counselor for nearly every American president since John F. Kennedy. But as a child born into poverty in the 1930s, Brown was raised by his grandmother to think differently about success. For example, "The best way to influence others is to be helpful," she told him. And, "You can't go wrong by doing right."

Fueled by these lessons on service, Brown went on to play a role alongside the great and the powerful of our time: trailing the mob in 1950s Harlem with a young Robert F. Kennedy; channeling money from American business to the civil rights movement; advising Richard Nixon on how to support black entrepreneurship; becoming the only person allowed to visit Nelson Mandela in Pollsmoor Prison in Cape Town.

Full of unbelievable moments and words of inspiration, You Can't Go Wrong Doing Right is a soul-stirring read for the dreamer in us all.

AUTHOR BIO

ROBERT BROWN is CEO and founder of B&C International, a global management consulting firm, and founder of the International BookSmart Foundation, a nonprofit that to date has shipped more than 5 million books to over 300 libraries in Africa.

Shameless

A Sexual Reformation

Nadia Bolz-Weber

Publicist: Ellen Folan | 212-782-8944 | efolan@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

From the New York Times bestselling author Nadia Bolz-Weber comes a raw, intimate, and timely overhaul of our harmful and antiquated ideas about sex, gender, and our bodies.

Christians are obsessed with sex—but not in a good way. For nearly 2,000 years, this obsession has often turned destructive by inflicting pain, suffering, and guilt on people of all persuasions and backgrounds. In Shameless, Bolz-Weber looks at the religious messages about sex that have created shame, explores the harm these messages have done, then offers, not a list of simple amendments, but a call to burn it all down and start over.

Bolz-Weber calls for a reformation. To make her case, she offers experiences from her own life and stories from her parishioners alongside biblical theology to explore what the church has taught and the harm those teachings have caused. While reexamining patriarchy, sex, and power she offers the hope that the “Gospel is powerful enough, transgressive enough, and beautiful enough to heal not only the ones who have been hurt but also those who have done the hurting.”

AUTHOR BIO

NADIA BOLZ-WEBER first hit the New York Times list with her 2013 memoir, the biting honest and inspiring Pastrix, followed by the critically acclaimed Accidental Saints (2015). A former stand-up comic and recovering alcoholic, she is the founder and former pastor of a Lutheran congregation House for All Sinners and Saints. In Denver, Bolz-Weber speaks at colleges and conferences around the globe.

Richard Rohr

Another Name for Everything

Why Christ Is More Than Jesus's Last Name

Richard Rohr

Publicist: Carisa Hays | 212-782-9277 | chays@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

From one of the world's most influential spiritual thinkers, a long-awaited book exploring what it means that Jesus was called "Christ."

In his decades as a globally recognized teacher, Richard Rohr has helped millions realize what is at stake in matters of faith. Yet Rohr has never written on the most talked-about topic in Christianity: Jesus. Most know who Jesus was, but who was Christ? Is the word simply Jesus's last name? Too often, Rohr writes, our understandings have been limited by culture, religious debates, and the human tendency to put ourselves at the center.

Drawing on scripture, history, and spiritual practice, Rohr articulates a transformative view of Jesus Christ as a portrait of how God works in the world. "God loves things by becoming them," he writes, and Jesus's life was meant as a statement that humanity has never been separate from God, except by our own negative choice.

Full of deep hope and vision, Another Name for Everything is a landmark book in the Rohr canon and an invitation to contemplate a God who is bigger and more generous than we ever dreamed.

AUTHOR BIO

RICHARD ROHR is a globally recognized ecumenical teacher, a Franciscan priest, and founder of the Center for Action and Contemplation in Albuquerque. Rohr is the author of many books, including the bestsellers Falling Upward, The Naked Now, and most recently, Divine Dance. He has appeared on radio and TV programs such as On Being and Oprah's Super Soul Sunday.

A Reckoning with the South's Past and Future

Robert W. Lee

Publicist: Megan Schumann | 212-782-9760
mschumann@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

A Robert E. Lee descendant shares his story of growing up with the South's most honored name, and confronting the legacy that came with it.

Robert W. Lee was a little-known associate rector at a church in North Carolina until the Charlottesville protests, when he went public with his denunciation of white supremacy in a viral speech at the 2017 MTV Awards, and in appearances on All Things Considered and The View. But as the attention poured in, so did the death threats. Weeks later, Lee was ousted from his church in North Carolina.

Now Lee tells his story, detailing the steps that caused him to think more deeply about his family legacy, and highlighting the growing movement of activists and everyday people who are envisioning a new future for the South.

"One of the best things that happened to me in the last two years was talking with Reverend Rob Lee, and sharing ideas of how we all can do a better as Christians, non-Christians, as human beings."

—Whoopi Goldberg

AUTHOR BIO

ROBERT W. LEE is a native of Statesville, North Carolina, and a graduate of Duke University Divinity School in Durham. He is a regular columnist for the Statesville Record & Landmark, his hometown newspaper, and an activist in racial reconciliation. Lee lives in Boone, North Carolina, with his wife, Stephanie, and their toy poodle, Frank.

A Fresh Look at Work, Faith, and Freedom

Publicist: Lisa Beech | 719-268-1917 | lbeech@penguinrandomhouse.com

Publicist: Megan Perritt | 212-572-2543 | mperritt@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

Recognized from her roles on Survivor, The View, and Fox & Friends, celebrity Elisabeth Hasselbeck presents a deeply intimate journey of faith, told through the important moments in her life.

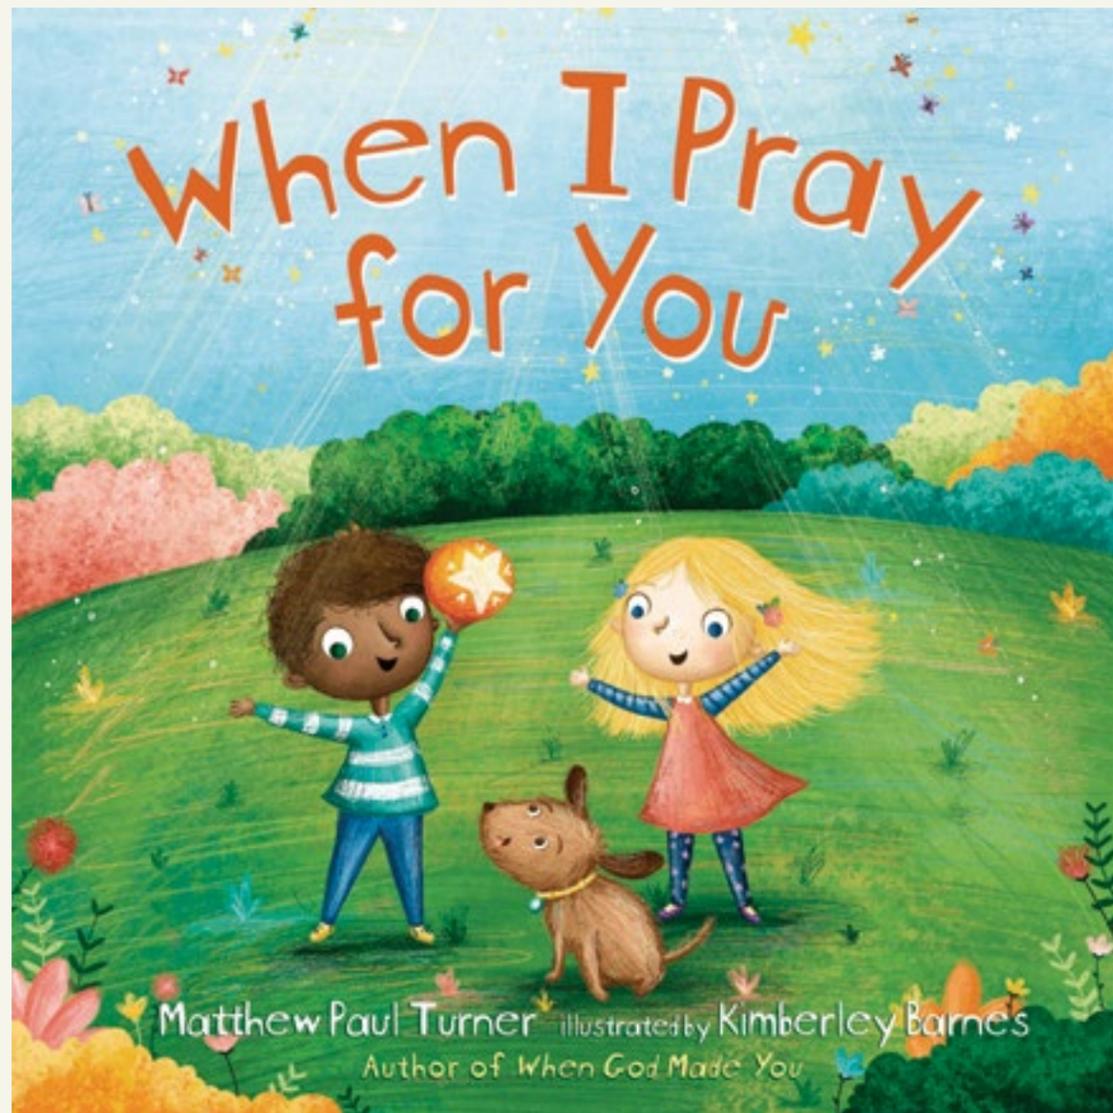

Through her nearly two decades of broadcasting, Hasselbeck learned the necessity of extracting the point of view of the person being interviewed. Doing so allows you to see issues and truths through another's eyes, and it requires a shift in perspective to see the story through a different lens. She walks through the times—from her national celebrity days to her newest role as CBO (chief breakfast officer)—when she saw something differently from how God wanted her to, and the path back to His point of view was sometimes rocky but always revealing.

Hasselbeck welcomes you into the many different, and often divergent, points of view that she has witnessed and learned from along the way. It is a journey that brought her to the ultimate point of view that she discovered in the Word of God—that until she sees herself as He sees her, she is not seeing at all. As you read through the pages here, she invites you to make the same discovery for yourself.

AUTHOR BIO

ELISABETH HASSELBECK is an Emmy Award-winning former talk-show host and New York Times bestselling author of The G-Free Diet and Deliciously G-Free. She is a busy mother of three and is married to ESPN/NFL correspondent and former NFL quarterback Tim Hasselbeck. Hasselbeck and her family live in Nashville.

When I Pray for You

Matthew Paul Turner; Illustrated by Kimberley Barnes

Publicist: Brett Benson | 719-264-5661 | bbenson@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

From the author of When God Made You and When God Made Light comes a beautiful and deeply meaningful prayer from a parent to a loving God, asking for God's presence and comfort over their child's life.

Something about seeing a beloved child come into the world, grow, and experience the wonder and pain of life drives adults to pray for the kids they love. Even people with no religious affiliation will pray for the well-being of a child. When I Pray for You celebrates the dreams, hopes, and longings we pray over for our children, and shares with the little ones how much care, concern, and love a parent, family member, or friend feels for them.

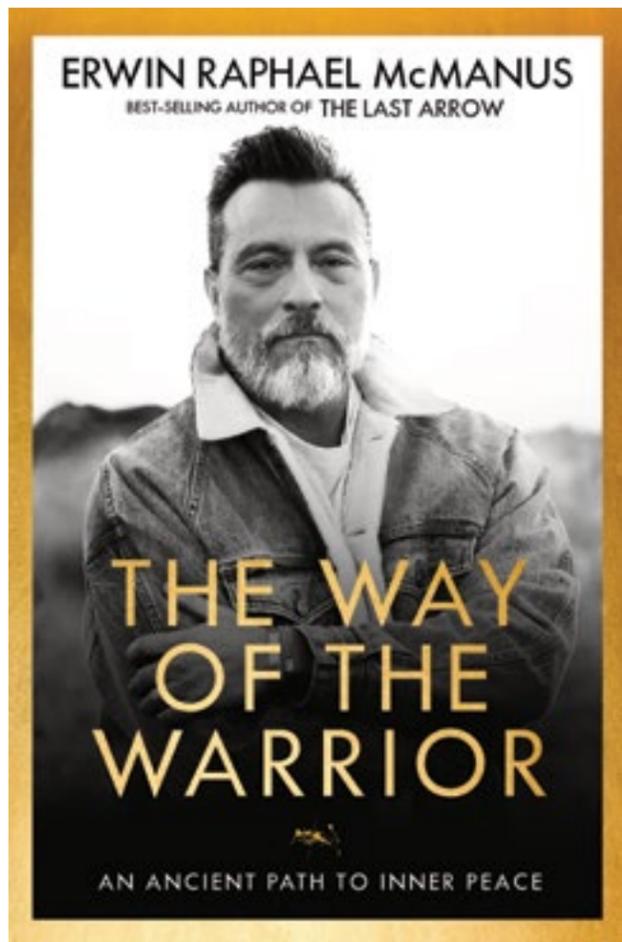

From the moment I saw you,
I started to pray
Many big prayers and small ones,
I have sent God's way . . .
I prayed you felt safe,
Full of joy and content
That when I whispered "I love you,"
You knew what I meant

The Way of the Warrior

An Ancient Path to Inner Peace

Erwin Raphael McManus

Publicist: Lisa Beech | 719-268-1917
lbeech@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

If we are to experience and establish peace, then we must first intentionally confront the battles that rage within.

Our world often thinks of a warrior as someone who dominates with external strength, maybe even at the expense of another. But the truth is, every war ever waged was first lost in the human heart.

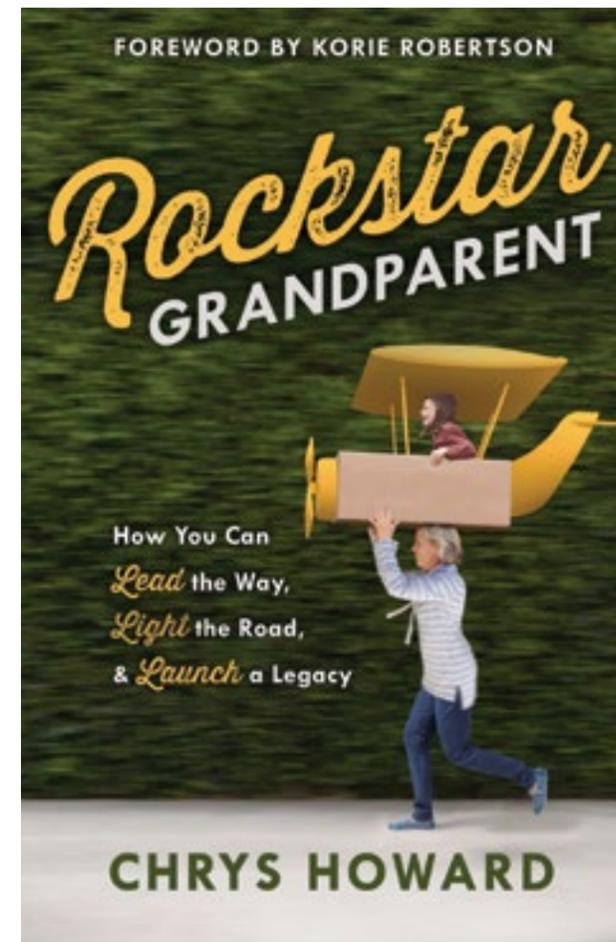

The true warrior is on a far nobler quest—the quest to realign the human soul from anxiety to peace, from pain to empowerment. The warrior enters the arena not from greed or for gain, but rather, to slay the artificial life so one can pursue a life of artful intention.

Encountering true inner peace does not occur by accident, but rather by overcoming life's greatest enemy—the self. The Way of the Warrior is a call to decisiveness, self-examination, and the pursuit of spiritual wholeness. Through the ancient biblical practices of humility, focus, ownership, clarity, strength, and vulnerability, McManus guides readers to a deeper understanding of their inner workings and provides the guidance they need to establish peace and tranquility in their homes, neighborhoods, communities, and even the world! In the style of a sage and well-journeyed teacher, McManus delivers wisdom, instills passion, and provides the sacred movements needed to become the warrior you were meant to be.

Rockstar Grandparent

How You Can Lead the Way, Light the Road, and Launch a Legacy

Chrys Howard; Foreword by Korie Robertson

Publicist: Beverly Rykerd | 719-268-1935
brykerd@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

A guide to grandparenting with flair, purpose, and fun in the age of smartphones and social media.

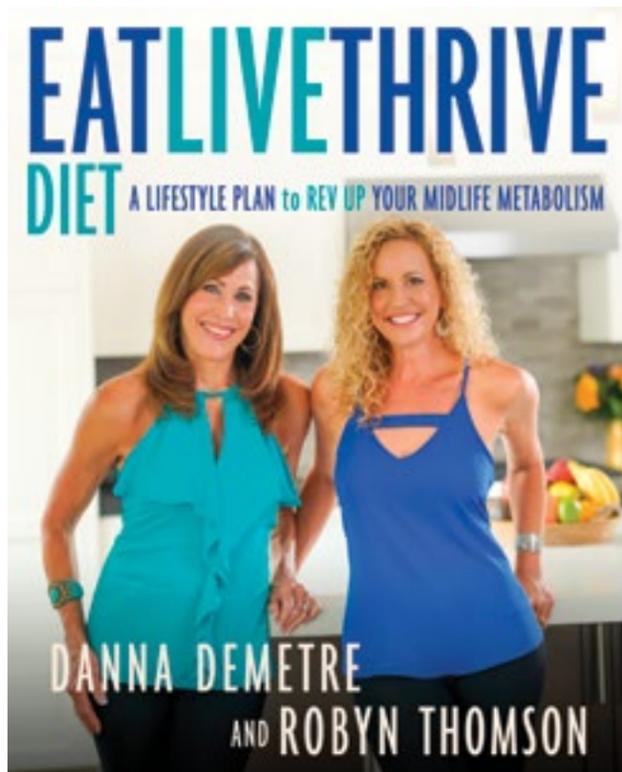

Grandparenting may be different today, but it still can be meaningful and fun for both the kids and the adults. Today's grandparent needs to understand technology—how it mesmerizes grandchildren but also enhances the opportunities to connect and share life experiences. And while many of the roles grandparents play in the lives of grandchildren have changed, their most important role of influencing with wisdom, faith, and fun remains the same. The author addresses topics relevant to all grandparents and also looks at the challenges of grandchildren living in single-parent or blended families. Also included are stories from the author's journey with her own grandchildren—including Sadie Robertson of the reality-TV hit Duck Dynasty.

AUTHOR BIO

CHRYS HOWARD, mother of Duck Dynasty's Korie Robertson, claims she really did have a life before Duck Dynasty. She holds a degree in elementary education and was named to Who's Who of American Teachers. Howard is the president of It's a Mom Thing Ministries and hosts a weekly radio show and website by the same name. She has written a number of books with more than one million copies sold, including Kay Robertson's New York Times bestselling cookbook, Miss Kay's Duck Commander Kitchen. Howard and her husband, John, have three grown children and 14 grandchildren. They reside in Louisiana.

A Lifestyle Plan to Rev Up Your Midlife Metabolism

Danna Demetre and Robyn Thomson

Publicist: Lisa Beech | 719-268-1917
lbeech@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

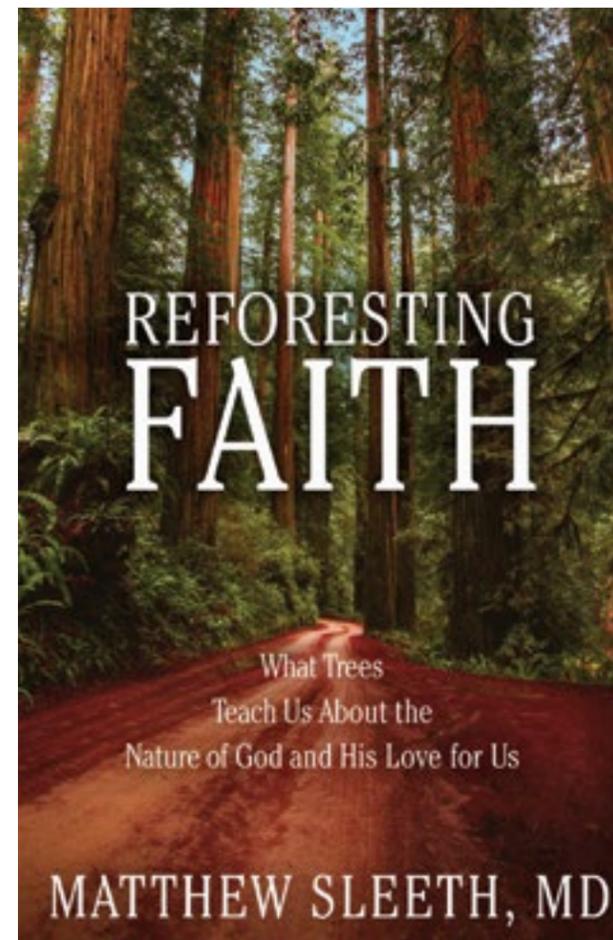

A science-based look at why women gain weight as they age, and a sustainable plan to lose the pounds and inches.

This innovative book unravels the mystery of why women gain weight through the years and shows mature women how they can not only lose excess body fat permanently but also improve their overall health in critical areas such as brain function, resistance to disease, slowing down external aging, and increasing energy. The eating plan is science based but complemented with personal experiences that reveal knowing what to do is rarely enough. Taking consistent action is more than a mere exercise of self-discipline and willpower. Included in the pages of this book are simple steps any woman can implement to take unhealthy thoughts captive and replace them with life-changing truths that can ultimately fuel new desires and behavior. Also included are 68 practical recipes to get you started on this sustainable, healthy way of living.

Reforesting Faith

What Trees Teach Us About the Nature of God and His Love for Us

Matthew Sleeth, MD

Publicist: Brett Benson | 719-264-5661
bbenson@penguinrandomhouse.com

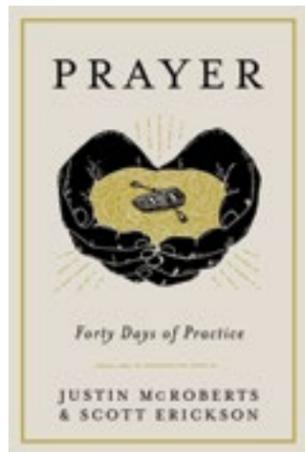

SUMMARY

In a revolutionary nature walk through the Bible, a former atheist shows that trees are essential to understanding God.

Perhaps we've missed the forest . . . and the trees. Beginning in Genesis, every major biblical character is associated with a tree, bush, or branch. In fact, other than people, trees are mentioned in the Bible more than any other living thing. Exploring how God chose to tell the story of the Gospel through trees opens up a whole new means of understanding creation, redemption, and grace. Join Dr. Sleeth as he explores the wonders of life, death, and rebirth through the lens of trees and explains how science is just beginning to catch up to the truths described in the Bible thousands of years ago. This book will unleash fresh ways of meditating upon God's Word and growing as a disciple of Jesus. Your walk through the woods—and through the Bible—will never be the same.

AUTHOR BIO

MATTHEW SLEETH, MD, resigned from his position as an emergency room physician to teach, preach, and write about the biblical call to be good stewards of the earth. Recognized by Newsweek as one of the nation's most influential evangelical leaders, Dr. Sleeth has spoken at more than 1,000 churches, campuses, and events. He is a graduate of George Washington University School of Medicine and has two postdoctoral fellowships. He is the executive director of Blessed Earth and author of Serve God, Save the Planet; 24/6 and numerous creation-care books and articles. Dr. Sleeth lives in Lexington, Kentucky.

The Coming Fight for Faith: A Novel

Travis Thrasher

Publicist: Chelsea Woodward | 719-268-1915
cwoodward@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

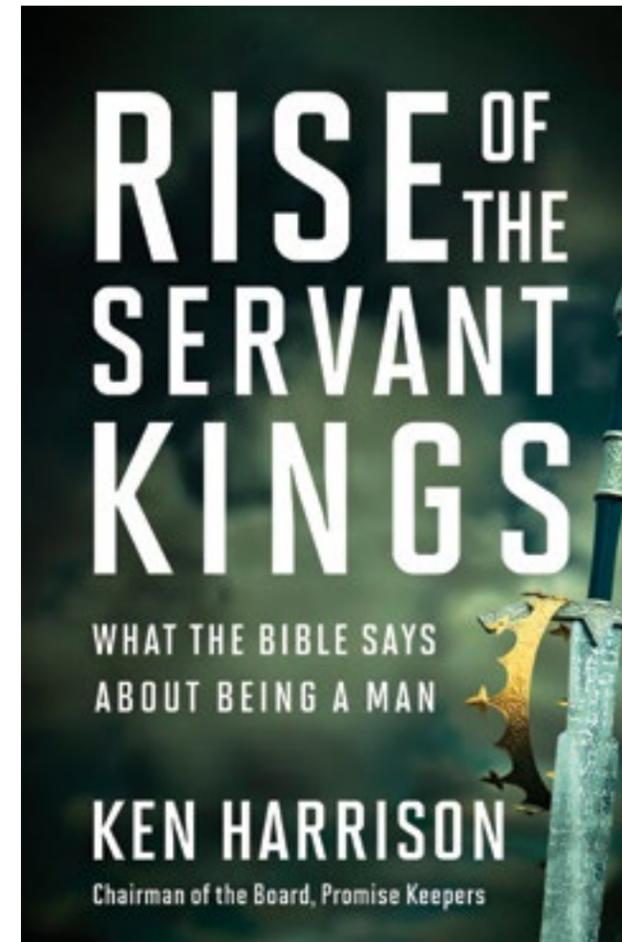

Following the decline of the religious right, a new threat emerges to destroy Christian belief and liberty.

In this thrilling near-future novel for readers of Jonathan Cahn, a computer programmer gifted at creating complicated and manipulative emotional algorithms, Cheyenne Burne, receives a cryptic message from her father, sending her on the run and fixing her in the crosshairs of her global tech employer. She flees to Colorado, where she discovers the truth of the persecution of the Christian church in America—and discovers the existence of the powerful group hoping to eradicate Christian faith. An enigmatic man has a plan to disrupt the leader and his globalists' grip on Americans. Hutchence is a visionary and believes he's called to share the incendiary Gospel message, but he'll need the help of Cheyenne and a band of others, who must work together to help this modern-day prophet reveal the puppet masters controlling a nation.

AUTHOR BIO

Bestselling author TRAVIS THRASHER has written more than 50 books, including fiction, nonfiction, and children's literature. His inspirational stories include collaborations with musicians such as American Idol winner Scotty McCreery and reality-TV stars Bill Klein and Jen Arnold from TLC's The Little Couple. Upcoming projects that expand Thrasher's profile include Olympic Pride, American Prejudice, about the lives of the other 17 American black athletes who with Jesse Owens competed in the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin, and Baby Don't Hurt Me, about comedian Chris Kattan's life and time on Saturday Night Live.

Rise of the Servant Kings

What the Bible Says About Being a Man

Ken Harrison

Publicist: Brett Benson | 719-264-5661
bbenson@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

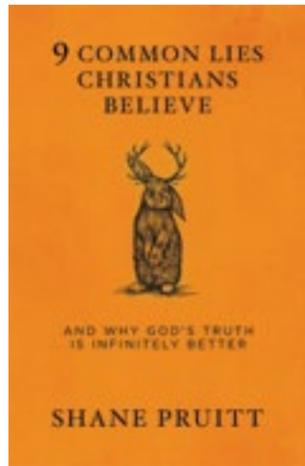

A Bible-based guide for Christian men on all aspects of life—marriage, family, work, friends, and relationship with God.

Men are hungry for authenticity and for sound and bold biblical teaching on true masculinity. Every day men ask themselves questions about how to be better fathers, husbands, friends, and men, but it's difficult to find satisfying answers. Rise of the Servant Kings explains that true masculinity is found in absolute surrender to God, which always results in humble character and is expressed in courage and generosity. When a man truly understands God's desires, he will naturally express godly masculinity. Ken Harrison weaves together his experiences as a police officer in one of the deadliest areas of the country with many years as a business executive and ministry leader to share deep truths for men direct from God's Word.

AUTHOR BIO

KEN HARRISON serves as the chief executive officer of WaterStone, a humanitarian organization that gives away more than $1 million each week and manages a fund of more than $400 million. Harrison started his career as a Los Angeles police officer and received numerous commendations and awards. After leaving the LAPD, he built a small firm into one of the largest of its kind in the United States. He recently became chairman of the board of Promise Keepers, a well-known Christian men's organization. He has been married to his wife, Elliette, for 27 years and they have three children. Harrison and his family live in Colorado.
