The 36th Moscow International Book Fair will be held at the Expocentre Central Exhibition Complex

The 36th Moscow International Book Fair this year will be held from August 30 to September 3 at the Expocentre Central Exhibition Complex on Krasnopresnenskaya Embankment . The venue of the book review was changed for reasons beyond the control of the organizers. The operator of the largest international book review will be the publishing house "Fiction" .

As promised earlier, the publishing houses that were the first to submit an application for participation and won the drawing - Ad Marginem Press LLC, Goodwin Publishing House LLC, Sergei Ivanovich Verkhov, IP, RIPOL Classic Group LLC - will be granted the right to receive equipped 4-meter booth at the Moscow International Film Festival, paying only 1 ruble.

Those who applied and paid for participation in the fair during the period of the special promotion from December 1 to December 5, 2022, as previously agreed, the organizers will provide the right to choose the location of the exhibition stand . Also, taking into account the reduction in the cost of participation, such exhibitors will be given the right to increase the area of the exhibition stand in accordance with the new cost.

For the rest of the participants this year, a significant reduction in prices for standard exhibition stands is provided. Updated prices for participant packages are available on our website .

The Moscow International Book Fair was established in 1977 and has been held annually since 1998.. More than 300 publishers and book distributors from Russia and other countries take part in the fair . The review is accompanied by a cultural program, which includes more than 200 meetings with writers, book presentations, conferences and seminars . An important part of the Moscow International Book Fair is always the business program for book industry professionals.

Traditionally, within the framework of the forum, solemn award ceremonies will be held for the winners of the National Competition "Book of the Year - 2023" , the XX International Competition of the CIS Member States "The Art of the Book", the XII Competition of Professional Skills "Inspector-2023", as well as the 5th season of the All-Russian Literary Competition "Class !

The 36th Moscow International Book Fair will be held with the support of the Ministry of Digital Development, Communications and Mass Media of the Russian Federation and the Government of Moscow.
